DENTIST

Dr Andrew Sproll
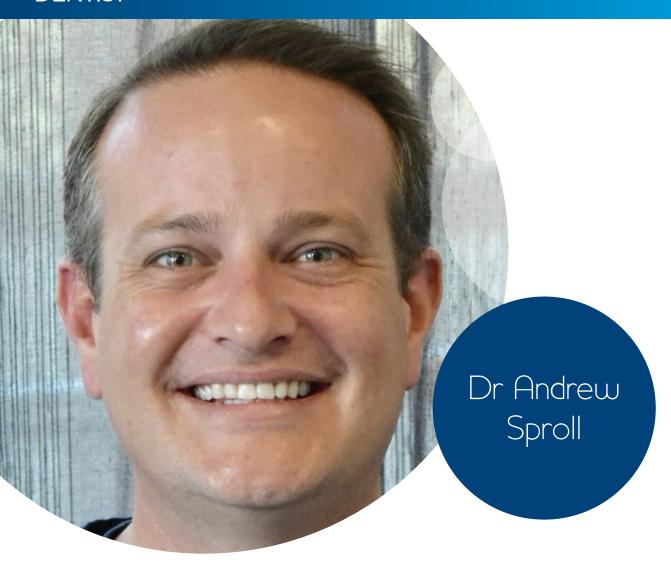

Dr Andrew Sproll BHSc (Dent) MDent (LTU) is a graduate of La Trobe University School of Dentistry and Oral Health, Victoria. He is a member of the Australian Dental Association Federal Branch (ADA) and NSW Branch, Australasian Academy of Dento-Facial Aesthetics (AADFA), and the International Association of Dental Traumatology (IADT).

Dr Sproll has a keen interest in leadership and excellence in healthcare delivery. Prior to returning home to the Central Coast 3 years ago, he was a Councillor/ Director of the Australian Dental Association - Victoria Branch and was involved in many professional roles within the organisation.

Andrew enjoys practising all aspects of general dentistry and has a special interest in treating patients with dental phobias and those who have had negative dental experiences in the past, and is dedicated to providing them with a 'different dental experience'.

Andrew enjoys providing general practice orthodontics and children's dentistry with the belief that he can make dentistry an overall positive experience for our next generation. He has a dedicated preventive approach to dental disease and enjoys playing a part in rehabilitating his patients' oral health to their optimum state.
